A Note from the Director

Welcome to the 2017 Marlborough Fly Fishing Show, the cure for your New England cabin fever. The fly fishing information and equipment is always at the best of the season at our three day event. We have expanded our seminar schedule, casting demonstrations, and celebrity list. Each day of the show offers a different program of events making attending all three days the show a must. The International Fly Fishing Film Festival is returning Friday evening to complete your weekend activities.

This year Gary Borger returns offering a variety of presentations. Joining him with new talks, fly designs, and techniques to share are Bob Clouser, Ed Engle, Bob Popovics, and many other stars. The "Classes with the Experts" schedule has expanded and provides an incredible value in a small class setting. This show features many of the nation's best fly tiers doing continuous demonstrations. The IFFF Learning Center will conduct free lessons in casting and fly tying to kids of all ages, all weekend long.

All the latest equipment will be available, including rods, reels, lines, fly tying materials, books and DVDs. Test out all of the newest rods on our large casting pond or book your next fly-fishing vacation.

You simply can't see it all in one day! Bring your family and friends to join the fun. Nothing will get you more excited for your next fishing adventure than the energy of the Fly Fishing Show.
